

Do you need dental advice?

DENTAL CONSULTING HOTLINE

Providing fundamental oral health care is always our priority.

Even though our dental offices are only providing emergency care during this unprecedented time, we believe it is vital that you and your family still have access to dental professionals for help with your basic oral health needs.

DO YOU HAVE A DENTAL RELATED CONCERN?

If you think you may be experiencing a dental emergency or concern, call 800.236.7619 to reach a dental professional from trusted practices in Alabama, Kentucky and Texas for you to consult with about your oral health. They can provide guidance on a wide range of oral health topics.

CONSULT WITH A DENTAL PROFESSIONAL ON:

- Toothache
- Oral Pain
- Swelling near a tooth
- Tooth sensitivity to cold/hot
- Broken Tooth
- Cracked Tooth
- Loose Tooth
- Broken Denture
- Partial Denture
- Crown Damage
- Crown Fell Off
- Lost Tooth
- Knocked Out Tooth
- Filling Fell Out

WHAT IS A DENTAL EMERGENCY?

Bleeding from gums or teeth that does NOT stop

Swelling or infection of the gums or mouth

Tooth that has been knocked out

Severe tooth pain

This phone consultation is intended to provide general information about dental health and does not establish a dentist-to-patient relationship. The information provided on these calls is not intended to diagnose or treat any dental condition, nor is it intended to provide specific dental or medical advice to anyone.

Any information provided during these calls is not a substitute for a professional dental assessment or treatment by a licensed dentist.

We will do our best to provide you with general information that will help you make your own healthcare decisions; however, no guarantees or warranties are made regarding any of the information provided during these calls.