

Challenging Behaviors Project: Phase III

Phase III provides tiered support to programs that have previously completed Challenging Behaviors Project coaching cycles. We promote respect, compassion, and strength-based strategies. This is accomplished by using proven and research-based systems to provide individualized support for teachers, children, and families.

ALABAMA DEPARTMENT OF
Early Childhood Education

To complete an application, go to www.children.alabama.gov and click on the tab Educators, find Challenging Behaviors, Phase III. There you can find the application to apply for the project. Contact Amy Hasty amy.hasty@ece.alabama.gov, Erynn Lusk erynn.lusk@ece.alabama.gov, or Misty Jones misty.jones@ece.alabama.gov with questions.

Tiered Approach of Support

Tier One

Supports Provided:

- Program-wide support
- Professional Development for Program Staff
- Classroom assessments and coaching support
- Consultation on program systems
- Resources

Tier Two

Supports Provided:

- Professional Development for Program Staff
- Classroom assessments and support
- Consultation on program systems
- Resources

Tier Three

Supports Provided:

- Professional Development for Program Staff
- Consultation on program systems
- Resources